Pallbearers will be Vick Smith, Larry Joe Smith, Roland Hankey, Rodney Chambers, Patrick Shows, and Butch Jones.

Mr. Chambers was a professional upholsterer. His work was known nationwide when it came to customizing the interior of antique cars. Through the years, he won many awards for best interior at the 'World of Wheels' annual car shows. His creativity and knowledge allowed him to give each car it's own unique design, no two were ever alike. He took pride in his work and had a style all his own. One could look at an interior and know that it was the work of Coyse Chambers. His work is represented on one of Hank Williams Jr.'s albums, as well as Hank's tour bus. Mr. Chambers was inducted into the 'Upholstery Hall of Fame' in Mississippi. He was a legend in his field.

He is survived by his Son, Courtney Chambers; Daughter, Amanda Chambers; brothers, Carlos (Brenda) Chambers, Vent Chambers, and Kent (Pat) Chambers; sisters, Brenda Chambers (Johnny) and Linda (Dale) Spratlin; Sister-in-law, Sherry Chambers; Grandson, Malachi Chambers; 18 nieces and nephews; and 12 great-nieces and great-nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, J.B. and Noler Chambers; Sister, Kim Chambers; and Brother, Travis Chambers.

The family extends special thanks to Pat Compton, Dianne Julian, and the staff at Summerford Nursing Home for the care that was given to Mr. Chambers.
