“ Aidan Jeremy was a great Nephew to me also a wonderful friend. We talked, laugh and often a driver for me to town and attend my grandson graduation. A lot of people knew him at Falkville graduation, I was not surprised. He always said I love you when he left or on the phone. Priceless memories for always.

HA

For a little over a year Aiden was a grandson-in-law. I'm glad my husband and I were able to attend his Senior walk at a football game, and his high school graduation. He prayed for me when I was diagnosed with breast cancer. Wonderful and cheerful, optimistic and sensitive. He was bold about his relationship to Jesus and excited to share his baptism. We lost him way too young! My biggest consolation is knowing he is with the Lord, my younger brother whom we lost two years ago and my parents
