

Angie Lee Marlow

December 30, 1979 - May 2, 2020

A beautiful soul left this world on Saturday, May 2, 2020, and left it a better place for having been in it. Angie Lee Drake Marlow, of Cullman, went to be with her Lord at Cullman Regional. She was born to the late Rev. Gerald N. Drake and Mary Lee Young Drake of Falkville on December 30, 1979.

She was beautiful inside and out. She was the kindest and sweetest soul. She loved her animals and loved her nephews, nieces, and great-nephews so very much. She found peace and solace in music. The true love of her life was her husband, Tony Marlow, whom she married on October 27, 2018. When she met him, she found true happiness.

Angie is survived by her husband, Tony Marlow of Cullman; mother, Mary Lee Drake of Falkville; brothers, Doug (Tarri) Drake of Hartselle and Keith (Tracy) Drake of Vinemont; sister, Eydie (Rodger) Black of Vinemont; nieces, Samantha, Abbie, and Grace Drake; nephews, Luke and Wes Jordan; great-nephews, Brayden and Wyatt Jordan; and a host of dear family and friends.

Visitation will be at Cullman Heritage Funeral Home for immediate family on Wednesday, May 6, 2020, from 10:00-12:00. A graveside service will follow at Flint Creek Church Cemetery at 1:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the family to help cover funeral expenses. Please make checks payable to Eydie Black or Tony Marlow, 75

County Road 1442, Vinemont, AL 35179.

“ Tony and Mary and all the family. I'm so saddened by this news . Angie, was a beautiful person and I remember her from vinemont band. She was a good friend to my son Brian Collins . She was always so much fun and I enjoyed talk f with her when she came to the house. I loved to hear her sing . She will be missed by a lot of people . Thoughts and prayers are with you all. God bless. Rest high on the mountain Angie . We love you .

“ Angie, every time I heard your beautiful voice you made my heart sing. I will miss you, but know that I will see you again one day. Till then lead that heavenly choir at the top of your lungs. Prayers for the family that they may find comfort during this time.
