“ She was such a mysterious woman to me but yet had so much to share with to help me grow as a person, as a mother and just over all the way around. She wanted to make me laugh but when I need wanted to tell me the truth I needed to hear. She was a privilege to know and someone I won't and can't forget! If only I can use what she's taught me and be as great as her I will be doing great.
