“ Cheryl, you were the Love of My Life and the Mother of Our Two Beautiful kids. You were full of life and loved a good time with family and friends. Those that knew us, knew things weren't always perfect, but you knew that I loved you and would always love you through what ever may happen. We were always there for each other when truly needed. I hope that I made your final days enjoyable while you were in so much pain. I will Love You until the day I die. One day, I will sit down and write down as much about your Life so that I can share it with others that may go through similar situations in order to get them through their issues to fulfill your wishes in life.
