“ I was so lucky to get to meet Clyde after marrying Alton. Juanita was kind enough to bring her to Chattanooga to see Alton and I when we had some family gatherings at our home. We also made the trip down to Cullman, AL to celebrate Clyde's 95th birthday in 2017 with niece Janice. I feel so very blessed to have gotten to know her a little bit and about her amazing life and her love of the Lord. And Alton feels so fortunate for having such an amazing sister-in-law for so many years. We were all lucky to have Clyde praying for us everyday. I only hope when the Lord brought her to heaven that she didn't get whiplash from flying up there too fast. Alton and I send our heartfelt condolences to the entire Trantham and Goodman families.

“ Although I didn't get to see Aunt Clyde for many years, sometime around 1999-2000 my husband and I were on a motorcycle trip to Key West. On the way back, we stopped in Homestead to say hello to Uncle Hugh, Aunt Clyde and Uncle Tom and more Trantham Family members. We sat around and chatted for a short hour or so and got back on our harleys and headed north. I remember my cousin Maryann excited to sit on my bike. My Mom Alice always enjoyed Aunt Clyde's company during our annual Trantham Family gatherings at Gramma and Grandpa's in Greensboro NC. Such wonderful memories from so long ago. My condolences to Juanita, Dave & Carol, Ken and Martha and their extended Families. We all know she is in Heaven finally reunited with her Hugh and many Family that have gone before her. On a lighter side - wow! 99 years - what a wonderful long life, imagine the changes she saw in her lifetime.

“ MOM Trantham was a mentor to me. I spent many hours with her learning about life in Christ. She had a gift of telling me so many things about her experience and life growing up, how she met her husband during the war. the places they lived, with his family while he was away overseas. and about the former years of the local Church of God and the spiritual things God did for that little church. and of course her children's lives, especially my husband. I treasure our time and how she helped me through a difficult time. After she and Pop retired, I watched how they reformed their life and dedicated themselves to stay strong and healthy the best they could. I'm in awe of her, and amazed how she kept going, still loving and shining for Jesus, even to the end.
