“ There are so many memories I have with Crystal. It’s hard to pick just one. She and I had one major thing in common: We both played trumpet. Not only did we play, we were the top players in our high schools. She went to Good Hope and I went to Hanceville. Although it may not be remembered, she and I made some history when we were able to play a duet on the football field during Hanceville’s halftime show. Who ever thought that those two bands would ever take the field together?

I’m still in complete shock that she is gone. We weren’t as close as we used to be, but I never stopped loving her. She will always have a special place in my heart. I pray that Dave, the boys, and all the rest of her family has the peace that passes all understanding that only God can give. My heart is broken by this loss.

*Crystal, I hope you are playing your trumpet in heaven taking my spot in a duet with my mom until I get there!!! Love you always,
Laura*
