“ Daryn, I'm so grateful we got to speak last week. I'm so grateful that I got to read about you caring about me and cheering me on from a distance one last time. I hate so much that I missed your last year, but that doesn't matter now. All that matters is that you're finally in a space that's big enough for you to be your true self. Losing a friend is one thing. Losing one of your twin flames is an otherworldly experience, and even though the pain that comes on violently can be unbearable, the love and your energy that is always with me is one of the greatest gifts. I love you so much, Daryn. Every single year is officially a bug juice year as we spread your love and your spirit.
