“ Dixie was never afraid to laugh, never afraid to make fun of herself, or whoever happened to be with her at the time. The thing is, you always had just as much fun as she did. What a loving, thoughtful woman! She was the same woman when I met her 35 years ago that she was when I last saw her. She was like another mother to myself, my brother and sister, and she will be sorely missed. We love you, Dixie!
