“ I remember the two weeks Mr. Bryant came to work with Shannon and I, he would come to my desk and talk to me about all sorts of things. I know from our conversations that he was a devoted husband and father. He was extremely proud of his family. He said he never cheated on his wife because he had the best one. He told me about Donna and Shannon and all of their accomplishments that they had with such pride. He gave me little bits of wisdom for my own life. I just genuinely liked him so much because he reminds me of my own Daddy. They were from the same place. I just want to say I love the Bryant family and I am praying for you all. ~ Love, Gina Rivera
