“ Dear Sandy and family...We were very sorry to hear of Don's passing. We remember so well the good times we shared with you and Don, in Raleigh, Atlanta and Lakeland. Don was a wonderful person...I cannot say enough good things about him. I will think of him fondly every time I order fish and chips!

Please contact us when you have an opportunity. We, and all the family in Nova Scotia, are thinking of you and saying a little prayer. God bless.

All our love...Cousin Peggy and Ralph XO

“ Can't even begin to tell everyone what this man meant to me professionally & socially as he was the type of person who could light up a room with his infectious smile. I will surely miss all the conversations we had & i will miss him immensely but at least I have great memories of all our great times.
