“ First of all this sweet lady has been such a blessing in my life and Jimmy's for 42 years. I can't say enough good things about her there's so much. I'm gonna miss her old timey stories and our talks on the phone. She was such a joy to be around. She was the best cook and could bake the yummiest coconut cake you ever tasted. I'm going to miss her. Sending my prayer and condolences to her son Neal (Kay) who has always been such a great son to her. She said she couldn't of ask God for anyone better. I am so glad I got the privledge to spend her last birthday (102) with her and Lil Jimmy.
