

Ms. Frances Kaye Blaylock

February 2, 1948 - June 5, 2017

Kaye Blaylock was born on February 2, 1948 to Marvel and Norma Price. From the day of her birth, life for those that knew her would never be the same. Kaye was a woman of many talents. She could take any room and make it showcase worthy. She had a quick wit, a loud laugh, and a fierce love for her family. She was well known and widely loved. A visit with Kaye always left you smiling, and looking to see how your furniture had been rearranged. She loved flowers . . . hers and yours. She loved her hats, too! Your trash became her treasure and she made it look GOOD! She spent time working with the Cullman Community Theatre and many knew her from her years at Wallace State. She worked for the Girl Scouts and for state government. She was preceded in death by her parents, her brother, Bryan, his wife Glenda, and their daughter, Sarah. She is survived by her four children, Abby, Ike, Price, and Lucy (her favorite), their spouses and eight grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, please bring Christmas lights (a Kaye favorite) and wear your favorite hat to celebrate this one of a kind lady. Visitation is Thursday, June 8, from 5pm-6pm with a memorial service to follow at Cullman Heritage Funeral Home.

“ One of my fondest memories of Kaye was her creative and innovative side to market Girl Scouts in North Alabama and to get girls to join. Using Whitney Houston's "Greatest Love of All" - that's exactly what she did.

Read the lyrics below - and this is how I remember her best.

*I believe the children are our are future
Teach them well and let them lead the way
Show them all the beauty they possess inside
Give them a sense of pride to make it easier
Let the children's laughter remind us how we used to be
Everybody searching for a hero
People need someone to look up to
I never found anyone who fulfill my needs
A lonely place to be
So I learned to depend on me*

[Chorus]

*I decided long ago, never to walk in anyone's shadows
If I fail, if I succeed
At least I'll live as I believe
No matter what they take from me
They can't take away my dignity
Because the greatest love of all
Is happening to me
I found the greatest love of all
Inside of me
The greatest love of all
Is easy to achieve
Learning to love yourself
It is the greatest love of all*

“ One of my favorite things about Kaye was how she would ask you a question, then answer it for you. The first time I met her she marches over to me and says, "Who are you? What are you doing here? You must be the new photographer. Have you eaten, you look famished. Will someone please fix this boy a plate of food." She came around and checked on me a few times after that and has been a blessing in my life every day since. We became great friends and her family became a part of mine. Kaye always had a way of appearing when you needed her the most. She mothered everyone she loved, and had a way of making you see the beauty hidden inside the ordinary.
