“ Lost one of my best friend's that was always in my life. I see him and hear his laugh all weekend. He will never ever be forgotten. He was special....very special to me Just a bond that cousins had as well as friendship since we were young. He got me and I got him ...we just knew each other and no matter the time between talks and visits, we were always there for the other one. That is hard to find. I love you Michael. You made my life very happy and was there for me at times when no one else understood. I guess we had it like that. I will see you again one day.
