“ Gwen was my aunt. My Daddy's little sister. She was always so sweet and treated me like one of her own children. I'll never forget her or my uncle Leroy and the wonderful memories they gave me as a child. She was always fun to be around and quick to smile. Unfortunately I had not seen her recently and I regret that deeply. I know my Daddy will be happy to see her again as well Leroy and Pat. I love you Aunt Gwen and will always remember you.

My prayers are with you love, and as well with the family, friends, and loved ones. She is in a better place, and may all those left behind be filled with peace, and love. May they all be comforted and reminded of the good times, smiles and compassionate nature of kind hearted soul has left a lasting footprint in all of those that were lucky enough to have been able to have known her...🙏
