“ We grew up in the same community, attended the same school, our parents were friends, we were different in age by one day, with Hafford being one day the oldest. I feel blessed to have know him as a class mate, and friend. As class mates we were all very close friends, only a few of us will be saying farewell to this good friend. I have felt the heart pain with so many of The 1954 Graduates Of Ryan High School departing this life for that better Home prepared for all those who walk up right. In John 14:3 Jesus said, "And I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that also may be where I am". To Mrs. Hester, Children, Grand Children, Sister and extended family I offer you my deepest sympathy. He will be greatly missed by many. I pray God bless and comfort you as you grieve the passing for you friend.
