“ Great uncle Harold was so kind and humble. He and Doris were a strong couple to be admired for sure. They welcomed everyone in their home. He will be missed.

“ Uncle Harold was the kindest man I knew. Soft spoken, patient, and good, he was a person we should all strive to be like. We will all miss him very much.

Love,
Amy Morris

“ I remember when I was real small, Harold had a big motorcycle. He and his friends would ride them in the road (dirt) in front of the house. Mom and Dad would not let Harold take me for a ride. I would get so mad cause I really wanted to ride that bike!!
