“ I am so sorry for your loss. I met Helen when my daughter, Magan Henderson Trammell became close friends with her daughter. There were 4 of the girls, all friends, that spent a lot of time at my house. Samantha, Kasey, Crystal & Magan. They were all like my own girls. I have been to Helen's house quiet a few times while all the girls were in High School. Helen was a great lady. I never heard her complain about anything. She was always laughing & made everyone feel welcome in her home. Helen, like most of us grandparents, loved her grandchildren & very Proud of each one of them. My heart is with you all. She will be missed So much. I know she will leave a big empty spot in your HEARTS. Prayers & thoughts are with all of you.
