“ I once read a story of family and friends tearfully waving "goodbye" to their loved ones as a ship slowly faded from their view into the sunset. The scene shifted to the break of day on the other shore where other friends and loved ones had spotted the ship coming into view and were happily waving "hello". Today, many are saddened to know that Bud has sailed out of our sight. But, just think what a great reunion celebration Bud enjoyed at the dawn of a new day as he landed on Heaven's shore! Picture in your mind how Bud's face must have lit up once he saw Jesus!

I have been blessed just to have known Bud Haynes (and his family) all through the years of my life. I still picture Bud in my mind as he participated in activities of service at Concord Baptist Church...such a great Christian example to all who knew him. He will be missed, but he has left us many fond memories.
