“ Our sweet Mrs. Williams who we saw Jesus in and whom we loved so dear. A beautiful humble lady who told me last night, she got to go to church Sunday and enjoyed it so much. We talked about eating the spiritual food in life to help keep our spiritual souls fed. Her life was about her family and her beautiful church. We are so thankful We attended her church earlier too. We saw why she was so thankful for her church.

She loved her family so much and was concerned about all of them like mothers do. We are so glad she was able to visit in our home a few times. We know we were blessed to be in her presense. She is the mother of wonderful Children, and Grandchildren.

The reflection of a mother is her children. She looked so neat all the time and made sure how she presented herself. Her Children represented her well.

I know she loved to cook for her family and would mention a dish she was preparing.

Truly God saw it was time to call her home. She reached her goal in life and her name was called. Like the Bible says, “To be absent from this body is to be present with the Lord”.

Memories are God’s nuggets in life. Sometimes when you are able for your soul to heal from your grief to be lighter, pull up some happy memories that can make you laugh or at least grin.

Remember her work has been completed here but In heaven her new life has just begun.

*Our prayers are for her family and friends,
we too are so broken hearted.*

*So, it is not goodbye Mrs. Williams, it is only "Goodnight". We too shall "Meet
You In The Morning". We will be together forever.*

So Sorry we can't make the trip due to sickness.

*Love and prayers,
Linda and Tommy*
