“ Just seen him at Harbor Freight Tools a month or so ago . He was his usual self of giving me a hard time all in fun of course. We had several people around us laughing at our bantering back and forth between us. He loved playing around which is his trade mark I believe because he loves people being at ease. He helped me so much feel at ease with masters hands buy telling me , don't worry just do the best you can . To Ed Williamson and Family I'm so thankful for knowing him and better for his presence in my life . He was a joy to be around and will be missed. Peace to you knowing he is with The Father in Heaven building Hot Rods of gold instead of yellow lol . Wonderful man my heart was saddened of his passing.

“ Ira was always a man you would want to model your own life after. His kind heart and compassion for the guys at the foundry farm were always such a blessing to all who came in contact with him. He will truly be missed.

“ Ira will be truly missed, not only because of his daily contributions to Daystar Church - which are too numerous to mention, but because of the person he was. I always knew he cared and that he loved me. I never once asked Ira for his assistance with anything that he didn't do everything in his power to help me or make it happen. He was a man of his word and stopped to help you no matter how busy or tired, or secretly sick, he was. And when he did something, he always made sure that it was done right! You never had to wonder where you stood with Ira Lol. He would always tell you exactly what he thought - which is refreshing to me. Bottom line, you always knew he cared about you, about Daystar Church, and about his job. His loss will be felt for a long long time as the work and the personality of Ira will not be replaced easily. WE LOVE YOU AND WE WILL MISS YOU, IRA. SEE YOU SOON.

Ira you lived a servants life from minister, soldier, business man, handyman, Husband, Dad, and friend. You always tried to do everything with excellence. I will cherish the stories you told and the points you drove home. I have so many memories like my all time favorite when Nita threw the stapler and you had to duck and then another when you shared your testimony in Wade and Roger's class. You were so humble and heart touching yet funny! You were a treasure to get to know and we will miss you so much until we meet again.

Our LOVE and prayers go out to your family, church and friends as well as church staff who feel the tremendous loss. We are heartbroken at loosing you and better for knowing you! Thank You for impacting our lives.

“ Mr. Ira was like a Paw Paw to all of the kids at Daystar Preschool. My 3 year old loved him dearly and always had to say hello and give him a big hug! He will surely be missed and the halls of the preschool will not be the same. My prayers go out to the family.
