“Mr. Bramlett came into my life at a time when I was re-building my life after having made many mistakes. I was introduced to Mac thru Brother Harold Coomer, and to say the least these 2 gentlemen saved my life, through their love of Christ. I thank God for him still to this day, and Mac I know you know but I am on a very loving walk with God still to this day. You will always hold a special place in my heart and I know you are missed by many. Love and prayers to your family.

“Mack Bramlett was my best friend for more than 66 years. He was my brother and closest friend. We had a relationship; whereas we were totally transparent in all of our many conversations and fellowship. While I lived in Alabama, I was usually at his house or he was at mine. We worked, played, double dated and discussed how we could change the world. We were even baptized on the same day. After I moved to Tennessee, our families went on several trips together. Mack was a giver and not a taker. He was very wise and most importantly very spiritual. For anyone reading this who has trusted the God that Mack trusted, you and I will see him again in Heaven.
