

James Quattlebaum

August 5, 1927 - January 23, 2013

Memorial service for James Fred Quattlebaum will be Sunday, January 27, 2013, at 1:00 pm, at Cullman Heritage Funeral Home.

Mr. Quattlebaum's adventure began on August 5, 1927. He is a man who was proud to serve his country with the 82nd Airborne, a man who combined disciplined farm boy values and a savvy business mind to provide for his family, and a man who valued truth, honesty and hard work above all else. For those that had the privilege of sharing his journey, they will remember his sparkling blue eyes, mischievous boyish antics, love of weaving tall tales, and most of all, dedication to family. His life is certainly one to be celebrated as it was filled with laughter, accomplishment, and love until his passing on January 23, 2013. Mr. Quattlebaum is survived by his wife, Donna Thompson Quattlebaum; four children, Tim (Shirley) Quattlebaum, Joe (Susan Cornelius) Quattlebaum, Mike (Jeannette) Quattlebaum, Christy Quattlebaum St. John; and four grandchildren, David Quattlebaum, Matthew Quattlebaum, Megan St. John, and Alexandria St. John.

In lieu of flowers the family respectfully requests donations be made in memory of Fred Quattlebaum to the "Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund".
