*She did love horses...you can't compete with the unconditional love from God's creatures!
RIP my old friend. You don't have to suffer anymore. We will miss you, but we will see you again. Memories from our Blizzard of Oz summed up in a Nutshell!
Too bad nobody could send a message to Mom's house off cody, but I dont think Ms. P ever did care for me. No sleep loss there I'm sure. However there is Google, Truthfinder or basicly any Technology around these days. I'm sure the military could have provided some contact information as well. But... But...but you finally did James. Just like you to be fashionably late. Always a friend, always loved... they just had to keep us separated!!!
Love you kids. You dont remember me. Please please keep it together. I know your Mom wouldn't want it any other way And niether should ya'll.
You live, you learn and you hurt but, WE DO grow. Blessings!*

*Oh my, Dear Ann. I'd love to hear from you. You were always remembered and loved by all of us. I'm so sorry I lost touch with you and many other friends of my children over the years. In fact I did not know they had kept in touch after I moved back to Florida. I'm easy to access on FB.
With love as always.
