“ Jennifer was a teach for one of my kids, Jerrett Rollins, at Holly Pond summer camp. I was very nervous as to he had just finished Kindergarten and begged to go to summer camp. Jennifer was so sweet and reassured me everyday he was fine. They went swimming and Jennifer would meet me at the lunchroom door with a big smile. We kept in touch through only Facebook. I watched her same smile as she lived her life with her son. I wish I would have known her better. I will certainly miss her stories and seeing her as a mother on fb. She will be greatly missed.
