“ OUR POPAW- he was the only daddy me n Bethy ever known. Plus so much more than that. He was one of the greatest men we will ever know. Worked everyday to give us everything he could. He taught us about Jesus and the Bible and how to pray. And tous he was like a super hero. Popaw didn't do no wrong in our eyes and was stronger than ne body we thought. I remember going to church with him and singing gospel music at reading his bible. And getting up really early on weekends so I could go to trade day or flea market with my popaw. And I'll never forget that smile of his that lit up the room especially when he was with his babies. And I member when mamaw would tell me here comes popaw and waiting for his big truck to come up the hill and couldn't wait for him to park to run out and meet him at big truck. He was our rock. And we know without a doubt he's in heaven with mamaw and mama and he's not hurting no more. We are gonna miss you so much popaw.
