“ My Uncle Jimbo was one of the BEST and he will be sorely missed. I remember when he and Aunt Cheryl got married and I remember how sharp he looked in Military Uniform! We had good times when they visited my family in Miami (when Christopher was just a baby!) and the great Seafood Feast we had when they visited me in the Florida panhandle as he and Aunt Cheryl traveled. Uncle Jimbo was always fun (and so funny!) to be around and I'm so happy he was able to meet my grandchildren this past June. (I'll never have pancakes without strawberries again!) My deepest condolences to this entire family and especially to my wonderful Aunt Cheryl, who loved him so very much. Big hug and many prayers - always, Alana Rich, Phoenix, AZ
