“ My best memory is when my daughter Meagan was little how much she loved Johnnie. He spoiled her rotten and all she had to do is look at him with them big blue eyes and he would always give in. Says "leave that baby alone". Johnnie was truly loved by my mother and he truly loved her. I am so happy he was able to be loved and feel love for 14 years along with long conversations and laughs. I will also always think of him when Auburn plays Alabama. He was a huge Auburn fan and that will always be a huge part of my memory. He worked hard to provide for his 3 kids and left this world knowing he did just that. We love and miss you Johnnie. I will never forget the letter I wrote you for fathers day and how it made you cry. I am so happy I was able to give you that piece of love while you was with us. Love and miss you, Christina
