Born on June 5, 1966, in Las Vegas, NV, Jolinda Carol “JoJo” Cannon was the daughter of the late Jodie Cannon II and Linda Cannon. From a young age, Jolinda’s heart overflowed with creativity, compassion, and a bold spirit that drew people to her. She was a devoted mother to Jazmine Howard, Jermaine Stephens, and J’Honstee Rollins, and a proud grandmother to Janaé, Janiah, Jaidyn, Lyric, J’Lani, Jermaine Jr., and JaKai - her greatest joys and constant sources of pride. Her family meant everything to her, and she poured her love into every moment she shared with them.

For over twenty years, Jolinda shared her creativity and skill as a talented cake decorator and the proud owner of It’s All Good Homemade Sweets. She had a gift for turning simple ingredients into something beautiful, and her desserts were known just as much for their heart as for their flavor. Beyond her work, she loved cooking, crafting, and giving back to her church and community, often blessing others with her homemade treats or helping families in need. Her hands were rarely still; if she wasn't baking or creating, she was serving someone else.

If you knew Jolinda, you knew her hugs. Her hugs could turn a hard day around, remind you that you mattered, and wrap you in a sense of peace and belonging. Her arms were a safe place for many, and her love could be felt long after she let go. Jolinda had a way of making people feel seen, valued, and deeply cared for, leaving an imprint on everyone she met.

Known for her strength, compassion, and expressively vibrant spirit, Jolinda lived a life full of faith and love. Her favorite song, "Yahweh Will Manifest Himself," reflected her unwavering trust in God's promises and power.

She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings Jodie Cannon III and Jernay Cannon, and is survived by her siblings Joel, Crayton, Nishon, Delbert, Shanon, Robert, Nicolle, and Deja, along with many nieces, nephews, and friends who cherished her dearly. Her life was a reflection of God's goodness - marked by love, laughter, and an unshakable faith that inspired everyone around her. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy will live on in the countless hearts she touched.
