“ It is an honor and privilege to pay tribute to Jonathan, for he was remarkable in so many ways. He was a truly devoted friend and a man of tremendous honor who touched so many of our lives. For me personally as I look back over the time I have been blessed to have known Jonathan, I can say with absolute certainty that he was the one person that could always be relied upon to the RIGHT THING...the honorable thing...and do so without fail and without fear regardless of popular opinion or outside influence. Jonathan lived a principled life underpinned by a strong sense of right and wrong. He was an incredibly intelligent and highly talented man capable of creating solutions to even the most challenging situations. He was very well respected by his peers & colleagues and had an exceptional work ethic. Jonathan had a very unique ability to share his expertise with all his colleagues, but did a better job of ‘managing up’ than anyone I’ve ever known in industry. He consistently remained a student of life, leading by example and never willing to stop learning.

Jonathan loved his family unequivocally & selflessly, was a loyal husband and devoted father. His devotion to Fran, Emerson, Olivia and all of his loved ones was the foundation of his character, guided his actions and represented the cornerstone which defined and shaped the way he lived his life.

As we say goodbye to our dear friend Jonathan, we need to remember how he touched our lives so positively and always honor Jonathan’s legacy as he leaves behind the world a better place than when he found it and for that we always be grateful.

It is with a heavy heart and tear-filled eyes that I say farewell, my beloved friend. Thank-you for always being there, Jonathan...I will cherish our friendship, time we shared, memories we created and keep you in my heart forever. May you rest peacefully in the heavens, for I will miss you more than words can describe. I will love and honor you forever, Brother.

Eternally,

Tom Osborne
