“ Ms Harris was a very sweet lady and very good neighbor. She loved to sit outside and watch the kids play. She always gave the children mayonaise sandwiches which they loved, she liked churchs chicken every friday night, and enjoyed life everyday. She was proud of all children grandchildren great and great great grandchildren She will always be remembered by old and young. I know she is happy to be with Larry again. Praying for family and we love you all Marian and Jessica
