“ I miss you more and more with each passing day I don't get to see you or talk to you or get on your nerves with all my hugging and loving on you all the time. I was an honest to goodness momma's girl from the time I first saw you when I opened my eyes is what I'm told. I know it's true because I always felt that way even after being an adult living on my own. I love you momma and I'm so sorry for all the things I did to let you down. You were an amazing mother and I mean that whole heartedly. I love you so much momma. I hope you're getting to live in heaven with all out other family members who have passed on as well and I also hope you are not in any kind of pain or suffering anymore. I will see you again one day and when that day comes I hope you are with God at the gates of heaven with open arms and still love me as much as you use too. RIP now sweet momma...I will see you again one day soon....I love you with my entire heart and soul... forever and always....to the moon and back...2 times...😊
Love Always and Forever; NO matter What,
Your sweet little Nickel baby...Nicole
