“ I will never forget our time together in the oilfields of North Dakota. I was so glad that you decided to come up and work here that summer.

We shared memories and we made memories and developed a bond to last us the rest of our lives that life had previously robbed us of.

Dad was so proud of the man that you became Kenny, and I'm proud to even have had the privilege to have known you. Little alone be lucky enough to be your step sister. If Norm wouldn't have found us I would've lost out on so much.

You will never be forgotten Kenny! Nor will your service to our country. They don't make them like you anymore. Every year I will light and candle just for you on Memorial Day.

I will share your stories of Dad and of our adventure together. I will add your story into the family genealogy on Ancestry.com to ensure that your story is not lost to time. Your memory will live on as long as mankind exist.

Your little lost sister,
Tess
