LARRY JAMES MOORE

Mr. Larry Moore passed away on March 20, 2015 after a brief illness and valiant fight. He was born May 9, 1944 in Gadsden, AL to Wilodene and James Moore.

He lived in Chicago, IL from the age of nine until he moved his family to Cullman in 1978. He held several jobs in Chicago, his favorite one being a Chicago Police Officer. Upon arriving in Cullman, he operated several convenience stores including Moore's 7-11, The Oasis and most recently Moore's Texaco. He had a gregarious personality and loved meeting customers, many of whom became treasured friends.

Larry enjoyed all sports and especially Alabama Football and The Cullman Bearcats. He had been the field announcer for over thirty years. He well prepared himself for the task, making sure he had the correct pronunciation of each players name. He was active in his own children's lives, often coaching Wee Wee and Pee Wee football, basketball, baseball and girls softball. Once his grandchildren were old enough to participate in sports, he rarely missed a game.

He was quick to make friends wherever he went and enjoyed so much his life in the Cullman community. Known as "Big Daddy" to his grandchildren, he lavished love and attention upon all of them.

He is preceded in death by his father, James Moore.

“ I was so saddened to hear that Larry had passed away. He was by far the nicest and sincere person that I have met. There was never a time that when I visited one of his businesses on saw him at his home that I was not treated like one of the family. I share in the sorrow with his family at this time. My thoughts are with you all.
