“ Please know that our hearts, our thoughts and our prayers go out to you all in this time of loss. We are thankful to God that he let our paths cross with Kay and her family.

Share your tears with God. Sometimes, the tears of grief are really a prayer, even when there are no words. Tears help wash away some of the grief. It feels like there is a bottomless well of tears, especially when our grief is fresh. As you cry, reflect on what John says in Revelation 21:4, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away"(KJV)

"Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you."(1Peter5:7)

"Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. 30 For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light." (Matthew 11:28-30(KJV) "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose(Romans8:28(KJV) "Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you." (James 4:8a KJV)

"For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. 15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, and remain until the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep." (1 Thessalonians 4:14

We can't bring Kay back but can see her again, in Heaven if we're born again by the Spirit of God. So, let's all live for God so we can all be together again in Heaven
