“ Linda is one of the best things to ever enter my life. She was a rock for me and I don't know if I can live my life without her. She was such a force in my life that I feel can never be replaced. Her beauty and kindness extracted from my life leaves me lost and sorrowful. Linda seen the good in me and was always by my side and cheering me forward. I wish my words could do her justice. I love you Linda.....

“ We worked together. It was always good to see Linda. She always had something sweet to say to you. She was a very loving and caring care giver and her patients loved her. She always went above and beyond for others. I will miss her deeply. Heaven has gained a Angel. Fly high sweet Linda. I love you and can't wait to see you again in Heaven.
