“ We are so very sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Lisa. Our hearts ache for you and your family during this incredibly difficult time. Please know that you are not alone in your grief. We are lifting each of you up in prayer and asking God to wrap His loving arms tightly around you, bringing comfort, strength, and peace that surpasses all understanding. May you feel His presence in the quiet moments and find reassurance in the memories you shared and the love that will always remain. Mrs. Lisa's life touched so many, and her kindness, love, and spirit will never be forgotten. We pray that God grants you rest when you are weary, hope when the days feel heavy, and the comfort of knowing she is now at peace in His eternal care. Our thoughts, prayers, and deepest condolences are with you today and in the days ahead. Love. Jonathan, Traci and Jon David Terrell

“ It might not have felt like Christmas but what I was on this day was the strength of the family was all there to support each other with hugs , shoulders to cry , or just to sit beside one other and prayer silently. I saw such amazing strength in her over the past two years and wish I could have got to know her better. May my sister Lisa rest in peace and find comfort in the lords arms . Love Mark
