“ My heart hurts that my sweet sister has passed. Her sweetness was precious, kindness and giving above and beyond. She has been such an important part of my life for as long as I can remember. I looked so forward to her trips here every year. I had just recently talked to her on the phone, our plans for me to come to Alabama in may. We were going to go to the smokiend mountains and we probably would of found some kind of trouble to get into. We always giggled and carried on when we could. I want to believe she rests now with her love ones, especially Claude. I miss her sweet smile. I loved her and will always.
