“ Marcey and Coy will always remain in my memories as wonderful neighbors and Christian friends. I still appreciate them taking me to Sunday School and church when I was very young, and being such amazing witnesses for what a Christian life should be. No doubt they are together again and rejoicing in their heavenly home.

“ Marcey was like a second mother to me! I spent many nights and Sunday afternoons playing with Lisa, my best friend, at their house. One of my fondest memories is of our beach trips and all the laughter and joy that I had with this precious family! She was always smiling and laughing. She was so loved and will be greatly missed! Thankful that she is with many family and friends now and I will see her again one day!
