“ Our father was always enjoying the outdoors. Whether taking us on bike rides on the Santa Ana River bed in CA, deep sea fishing, swimming, going for sabbath afternoon drives, etc. He was always quick to bring us kids with him and teach us anything we asked. He cared for our precious Mom keeping his wedding vows and showing us what the marriage commitment meant. He was very predictable (early anywhere) and simplistic. There is so much my father taught me but we both know the Apple didn't fall far from the tree. We loved each other in good and bad times and tried our best to see each other through struggles, though as we aged he continued to not allow it to keep his independence. But when he realized he would live a life chair to chair he knew any medication that would help a body organ, then he knew he didn't want it. He chose his path to a natural end of life and he loved us to the end. Rest Daddy, Jesus will come to take you home and I look forward to the day we can walk in Heavens golden path.
