“ It was both an honor and a blessing to have worked for several years with Matt at the Yates-Chance Christian Bookstore. Needless to say, Matt had many great talents and gifts, but I believe the one I will always miss most of all was his ability to make people laugh. If I ever came to the store feeling down, I wouldn't stay that way long with Matt around. I am overjoyed for him right now, but my heart breaks for his precious family and many, many friends. You are all in my prayers.

*With Love,
Jess Medlock*
