“ The last time I seen Nate was at homecoming we were hanging out like we always do and we started painting our faces like cats for some reason with eyeliner and we just ran around for the rest the day just annoying people looking like cats One of my favorite memories of Nate has to be last year the trade school we would ride the bus to and from there every single morning and afternoon and every day on that bus was a new adventure I pretty much will always sat with Nate he was my best friend we had a bus playlist neither of us were too much of social butterflies when I came to the people we were with just because we weren't that good of friends with them last year I was going through a lot and he became my rock I don't know what I would've done without it I don't know where I would be right now without him
