

Opalene Hooten

February 2, 1927 - August 10, 2017

Funeral services for Opalene E. Hooten, 90, of Fairview will be Sunday, August 13, 2017 at 3 PM at Corinth East Baptist Church, with interment in adjoining cemetery, Pastors Ronnie Jetton and Sherman Bailey officiating. Mrs. Hooten passed away August 10, 2017 at home. She was born February 2, 1927 to parents Gus Ottis and Rosa Estar Eddleman.

Opalene retired after 35 years teaching school. She enjoyed art, horticulture, teaching Sunday school, and raising her boys. Her life's goal was to serve and be obedient to Gods will and make a difference in people's lives.

She is preceded in death by her parents; one sister, Vera McDermond; and three brothers, Willis, O.D., and Edward Eddleman.

She is survived by her husband, of 70 years, Clyde Wesley Hooten; two sons, Gary (Candace) Hooten and Barry (Lynn) Hooten; six grandchildren, Shelly (Kent) Windham, Hesston (Ashley) Hooten, Haley (Tyler) Gary, Hayden (Thayane) Hooten, Kindra (Dwight) Edwards, and Blake (Haley) Nail; ten great-grandchildren, William and James Windham, Hayla, Hudson, Holden, and Hayes Hooten, and Chloe, Gary, and Avea Grace Miller and Parker Nail; and a host of family and friends.

Visitation will be Sunday, from 1-3 PM at the church prior to service.

“ Mrs. Hooten was my middle school Physical Education Teacher and cheerleader sponsor for a time while I attended Baileyton School. I will never forget the life lessons she taught in the locker room on hygiene etc. or the P.E. programs that highlighted gymnastics and of course the square dancing. Whenever I would see her out and about she always remembered me and that was special. She was a great lady and raised nice children. I will miss her.
