“ I worked with Paula at Huntington Hospital in the early 80's, and was always impressed with her patience, kindness, sense of humor, and work ethic. She was so efficient and helpful. Now that I know that she revered St. Therese (although I'm an atheist, I do know that she's my patron saint), I do see the resemblance. Paula was always one of the sweetest people I have ever known. I'm sorry we lost touch. RIP. Terry H. xo

“ Martin and I(Mary Ann Voss) loved Paula as a dear friend. Her big heart and kindness preceded her. We shall pray for Vincent to know God's love for him as Paula did, despite her long suffering.

“ I remember Paula as a kind caring colleague & friend. I am privileged to have known her during our time in Alaska. I especially remember riding our bike out the road & stopping to visit her & Vincent.
