The Measure of a Man

Not--"How did he die?" But--"How did he live?"

Not--"What did he gain?" But--"What did he give?"

These are the units to measure the worth of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not--"What was his station?" But--"Had he a heart?"

And--"How did he play his God-given part?"

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer,
to bring back a smile, to banish a tear?"

Not--"What was his church?" Nor--"What was his creed?"

But--"Had he befriended those really in need?"

Not--"What did the sketch in the newspaper say?"

But--"How many were sorry when he passed away?"

“ As Kaylyn, Adyson, Rosie Faye and I drove through Marks and on to Batesville today, we reminisced about Ray. While we all wished we were heading to AL, we talked instead on what a great husband he was, a great son-in-law, brother-in-law, and uncle. He was always in a good mood and when he was in the kitchen he was always cooking up something good. Aunt Lu commented on how well he took care of her for almost a whole year. I still considered Ray my brother in law. He laughed with us and he comforted us in difficult times. While we gather around here with teary eyes in the sun room we all worked together to surprise Rosie Faye with, we all acknowledge what a mark he has made on this family. He will be missed.

Will always remember the great time we had at the Sunday School party at your house and the nights playing dominoes. Was always a gracious host. Kim and Nick, you are in our constant thoughts and prayers.
