“ I took care of Becky Lynn from day 1 and she always called me “her girl”. I did her makeup on Sundays before she went to church and if I wasn't there she was hunting me down. We've had SOO many good laughs (until we've both cried) and SO many GREAT memories! She had the best heartwarming hugs, her smile lit up every room and her laugh was so contagious! She sure had some sneaky tricks up her sleeve lol but that's what made her, her! She had to have her coffee soon as she woke up. I'm sure gonna miss my best friend! I love you Becky Lynn! Rest Easy sweet lady, we will take care of the rest! -Love always, Your girl Taylor.

This is a wonderful and beautiful person inside and out. She loved her coffee and would strike up a conversation. Always smiling, never knew what she was up to and she had a few shenanigans up her sleeve. The Dietary Department miss her. She is a delight to have gotten to know her.
