“ Even though he was much older than I was, I have fond memories growing up with Rick. One time when the whole family was on vacation in Rehoboth he walked me to the store and bought me some bubbles. Since I was the youngest I was not allowed to go down to the beach until after I napped. He made me feel better by doing that. Rest in peace cousin.

“ There was no better cousin than my cousin Rick, he was like a brother. I used to love when he would come to my house and we would go to the orchard and walk around. Rick was a caring soul and would do anything for anyone. He loved his mom very much. When we would spend the day together he always made sure we went to visit my mom and he would always take her flowers. I will think of you often and love you forever. Until we meet again, cousin.

“ Big Rick was like a brother too me. I loved when we would go to the orchard and walk around. When my mom was sick, he would always make sure we visited. Rick was one in a million and I will miss him dearly.
