“ We all know that there are certain people in our life we consider our good good friends. Well not only was Bob my brother in law he was my good good friend. I have known him since 1976 when our families met. We have always been close and kept in touch with each other over the years. I will definitely miss our hour long phone calls catching up. We had a lot of the same interests plans. trains. cars. and golf. My Condolences to all of his imitate family, extended family and friends. RIP brother in law until I see you again.
