“ My heart is broken. Robert and I worked together for a number of years in two different companies but we became like brothers. I depended upon him, on many occasions, to help in a situation that usually required personal inconveniences on his part. Robert never refused a request for help and never asked for special consideration, but he was a special guy and one of the best friends anyone old have. His family was his main focus and his most treasured asset. Robert never hesitated to share stories of his grandchildren and always lovingly spoke of his children and Amelia, the love of his life. I loved him like a brother and I am happy knowing that one day I will see him again. My prayers are with his family and my heart is filled with sadness at his passing but I am confident that he is at peace with the Lord.
