“Poppie” as I knew him exemplified the fine qualities of a loving and caring husband, father and grandfather. I hope and pray that my son in law, Sidney Garland Duke will continue to carry his name well, and that my grandsons, Carter and Jaxson will remember the good example he always set before them. I know that my daughter Erica loved him so much and talked often of what a good man he was. To Mickey and Andy and your families: The Bible says that we should leave our children and inheritance, and that the greatest inheritance a person can leave their children is a good name. He left that for you. Wear it well!!:) God bless you; you're in my prayers always.

Much love; Georgia Hendrix Shockley
